

Kansas Unemployment Benefits

On Tuesday, the Kansas legislature (House and Senate) passed legislation that would allow recipients of benefits to receive their first check immediately (versus one week waiting period) and extend the benefit period from 16 weeks to 26 weeks.

Kansas Unemployment Benefits: Get Started - <https://www.getkansasbenefits.gov/Home.aspx> or 800-292-6333

- . Due to current circumstances, the Kansas Department of Labor encourages filing online
- . Application and Filing Tutorials
- . Please note that if signed into law, the changes created by the legislation passed Tuesday may not be immediately reflected on the benefits website.